BE IT ENACTED by the National Assembly of the Federal Republic of Nigeria as follows:

PART I - ESTABLISHMENT, FUNCTIONS AND POWERS OF THE SATELLITE TOWN DEVELOPMENT AGENCY

1. There is established a Satellite Towns Development Agency for Federal Capital Territory (in this Bill referred to as “the Agency”).

2.- (1) The Agency shall consist of an administrator and other members who shall be appointed by the Minister after due consultation with the President.

(2) The Agency:

(a) shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and common seal; and

(b) may sue and be sued in its corporate name.

3.- (1) The President shall by order published in the Federal Gazette designate existing and new towns as satellite towns.

(2) Satellite towns shall consist of areas not comprising the Federal Capital Territory.

(3) The area comprised in the satellite towns shall, as from the portion of the Federal Capital Territory be administered by the Agency to the exclusion of any other person or body.
4. The ownership of the land comprised in the Satellite Towns and the Federal Territory is vested in the Federal Government.

5.- (1) Subject to the provisions of the Federal Capital Territory Act and in accordance with this Act, the Agency shall be charged with the responsibility for:

(a) defining the boundaries of the satellite towns by reference to the limits, distances and hearings demarcated by the authority which shall have carried out the survey referred to in the FCT Act;

(b) preparation of a master-plan for the satellite towns and precepts for land use and planning within the satellite towns;

(c) development of the satellite towns so created;

(d) provision of intercity services within the satellite towns;

(e) establishment of infrastructural facilities in accordance with the master-plan; and

(f) coordination of the activities of the Federal Government within the satellite towns in the Federal Capital Territory.

(2) Subject to other provisions in this Act, the Agency shall have power to do anything which in its opinion is calculated to facilitate the performance of its functions including and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power:

(a) to hold and manage movable and immovable property;

(b) to construct and maintain such roads, buildings, plants, machineries and such other works as may be necessary;

(c) to purchase or otherwise acquire or take over any asset, business, property, privilege, contract, right, obligation and liability of any person or body (whether corporate or unincorporated) in furtherance of its activities;

(d) to enter into contracts or partnerships with any person or body (whether corporate or unincorporated) which in the opinion of the Agency will facilitate the discharge of the functions under this Act;

(e) to train managerial and technical staff for the purpose of discharging the functions conferred on it by or in pursuance of this Act;

(f) to undertake such research as may be necessary for the performance of its functions under this Act;

(g) to exercise such other powers as are necessary or expedient to give full effect to the provisions of this Act.

(3) Except with the general or special approval of the President and as otherwise prescribed by this Act, the Agency shall not have the power to borrow money or to dispose of any property.

6.- (1) For the purpose of the efficient discharge of the responsibilities of the Agency under this Act, the Administrator, any other officer or staff of the Agency authorized in that behalf:

(a) shall have a right of access at all times to any land or building within the satellite towns for the purpose of ascertaining that the provisions of this Act are not being contravened;

(b) may issue a notice calling upon any person whom he has reason to believe is able to give any information respecting the ownership, possession or the boundaries of land within the Satellite Towns or any part thereof, or in whose possession or power any documents relating to any such matter is alleged to be, to attend before him and give such information or produce such documents on a date and at a place mentioned in the notice; and
