(g) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding N300,000 or
(b) the transmission of the statements in Nigeria is likely to-
(i) be prejudicial to the security of Nigeria or any part of Nigeria;
(ii) be prejudicial to public health, public safety, public tranquility or public finances;
(iii) be prejudicial to the friendly relations of Nigeria with other countries;
(iv) influence the outcome of an election to any office in a general election or a referendum;
(v) incite feelings of enmity, hatred directed to a person or ill will between different groups of persons; or
(vi) diminish public confidence in the performance of any duty or function of, or in the exercise of any power by the Government.
(2) Subject to sub Clause (3), a person who contravenes sub Clause
(1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding N300,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or
(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding N10 Million.
(3) Where an inauthentic online account or a bot is used-
(a) to transmit in Nigeria the statements mentioned in sub Clause (1);
and
(b) for the purpose of accelerating such transmission, the who person is guilty of an offence under that sub Clause shall be liable on conviction-(c) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding N300,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or
(d) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding N10 Million.
(4) Sub Clause (1) does not apply to the doing of any act for the purpose of, or that is incidental to, the provision of-
(a) an internet intermediary service;
(b) a teletransmission service;
(c) a service of giving the public access to the internet; or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or

5.-(1) A person who, whether in or outside Nigeria, solicits, receives or agrees to receive any financial or other material benefit as an inducement or reward for providing any service, knowing that the service is or will be used in the transmission of one or more false statements of fact in Nigeria, shall be guilty of an offence if the service is in fact used in such transmission.

(2) A person who is guilty of an offence under sub Clause (1) shall be liable on conviction-

(a) in the case of any individual, to a fine not exceeding N150,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 2 years or to both; or

(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding N500,000.

(3) However, if the transmission of the false statements of fact under sub Clause (1) is likely to-

(a) be prejudicial to the security of Nigeria or any part of Nigeria;

(b) be prejudicial to public health, public safety, public tranquility or public finances;

(c) be prejudicial to the friendly relations of Nigeria with other countries;

(d) influence the outcome of any election to any office in a general election in Nigeria;

(e) incite feelings of enmity, hatred towards a person or ill will between different groups of persons; or

(f) diminish public confidence in the performance of any duty or function of, or in the exercise of any power by the Government, an Organ of State, a statutory board, or a part of the Government, an Organ of State or a statutory board, the person who is guilty of an offence under that sub Clause shall be liable on conviction;

(g) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding N300,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or

(h) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding N10 Million.
(4) Sub Clause (1) does not apply to any act carried out for the purpose of, or that is incidental to, the provision of-
(a) an internet intermediary service;
(b) a telecommunication service;
(c) a service of giving the public access to the internet; or
(d) a computing resource service.
(5) Where the Court convicts a person of an offence under sub Clause (1) the Court must in addition to imposing the punishment in Sub Clause or (3) order the person to pay as penalty, a sum equal to the amount of any financial or material benefit received or in the opinion of the Court the value of such financial or material benefit.
(6) Sub Clause does not apply if the court determines that the value of the financial or other material benefit cannot be assessed.
(7) Where-
(a) a person charged with 2 or more offences under sub Clause (1) is convicted of one or more of those offences; and (b) the other outstanding offences are taken into consideration by the Court, the Court may increase the penalty mentioned in sub Clause (3) by an amount not exceeding the total amount or value of the financial or other material benefit received for the offences so taken into consideration.

PART 3 - REGULATIONS DEALING WITH TRANSMISSION IN NIGERIA OF FALSE DECLARATIONS OF FACT

6.-(1) The Law Enforcement Department may, issue a Part 3
Regulation in the event of the following-
(a) that a false DECLARATION of fact (called in this Part the subject DECLARATION) has been or is being transmitted in Nigeria;
(b) the Law Enforcement Department is of the opinion that it is in the public interest to issue the Regulation.
(3) The Law Enforcement Department shall issue a Part 3
Regulation in relation to the subject DECLARATION even if it has been 7.-(1) A Correction Regulation is one issued to a person who transmitted the subject DECLARATION in Nigeria, requiring the person to transmit in Nigeria in the specified form and manner, to a specified person or description of persons (if any), and by the specified time, a notice (called in this Part a correction notice) that contains one or both of the following:

(a) a DECLARATION, in such terms as may be specified, that the subject DECLARATION is false, or that the specified material contains a false DECLARATION of fact;

(b) a specified DECLARATION of fact, or a reference to a specified location where the specified DECLARATION of fact may be found, or both.

(2) A Correction Regulation may require the person to whom it is issued to transmit in Nigeria a correction notice in a specified online location.

(3) A Correction Regulation may also require the person to whom it is issued to do one or both of the following:

(a) to transmit in Nigeria the correction notice by placing it in the specified proximity to every copy of the following that is transmitted by the person in Nigeria:

(i) the false DECLARATION of fact;

(ii) a substantially similar DECLARATION;

(b) to publish the correction notice in the specified manner in a specified newspaper or other printed publication of Nigeria.

(4) A person who transmitted a false DECLARATION of fact in Nigeria may be issued a Correction Regulation even if the person does not know or has no reason to believe that the DECLARATION is false.

(5) In this Clause-

(a) "specified" means specified in the Correction Regulation; and

(b) a person does not transmit a DECLARATION in Nigeria merely by doing any act for the purpose of, or that is incidental to, the provision of-

(i) an internet intermediary service;
8.-(1) A Stop Transmission Regulation is one issued to a person who transmitted the subject DECLARATION in Nigeria, requiring the person to stop transmitting in Nigeria the subject DECLARATION by the specified time.

(2) A Stop Transmission Regulation may also require the person to whom it is issued to stop transmitting any DECLARATION that is substantially similar to the subject DECLARATION.

(3) A Stop Transmission Regulation may also require the person to whom it is issued to do one or both of the following:

(a) to transmit in Nigeria a correction notice in the specified form and manner, to a specified person or description of persons (if any), and by the specified time;

(b) to publish a correction notice in the specified manner in a specified newspaper or other printed publication of Nigeria.

(5) A person who transmitted a false DECLARATION of fact in Nigeria may be issued a Stop Transmission Regulation even if the person does not know or has no reason to believe that the DECLARATION is false.

5. In this Clause-

(a) "specified" means specified in the Stop Transmission Regulation;

(b) "stop transmitting", in relation to a DECLARATION, means taking the necessary steps to ensure that the DECLARATION is no longer available on or through the internet to end users in Nigeria, including (if necessary) the removal of the DECLARATION from an online location; and

(c) a person does not transmit a DECLARATION in Nigeria merely by doing any act for the purpose of, or that is incidental to, the...
9.- (1) A Part 3 Regulation may be issued to a person whether the person is in or outside Nigeria.

(2) A Part 3 Regulation may require the person to whom it is issued to do an Act in or outside Nigeria.

(3) A Part 3 Regulation must identify the subject DECLARATION in sufficient detail.

(4) A Part 3 Regulation must comply with such form, manner and other as may be prescribed (if any), and for this purpose different requirements may be prescribed for-

(a) different Regulation;

(b) different parts of a Regulation;

(c) different persons or descriptions of persons to whom a Regulation is to be issued; and

(d) different circumstances under which a Regulation is to be issued.

(5) A Part 3 Regulation remains in effect until the date it expires (if any), or it is set aside under Clause 15 or cancelled under Clause 17.

(6) A person issued a Part 3 Regulation is responsible for the costs of complying with the Regulation.

10. A Part 3 Regulation may be served by such means (including electronic means) as may be prescribed-

(a) on the person to whom it is issued; or

(b) on a person in Nigeria that the person to whom the Part 3 Regulation is issued has appointed to accept service on the person’s behalf.

11.- (1) A person to whom a Part 3 Regulation is issued and served and who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with the Regulation whether in or outside Nigeria, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction:-

(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding N200,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both; or

(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding N5 Million.

(2) It is not a defence to a charge under sub Clause (1) that:

(a) the person is subject to a duty under any written law, any rule of law, any contract or any rule of professional conduct, that prevents the person from complying with any part of a Part 3 Regulation or restricts the person in such compliance; or

(b) The person has applied under Clause 19 to vary or cancel the Part 3 Regulation or has appealed to the High Court against the Regulation.

(2) No civil or criminal liability is incurred by the person or an officer, employee or agent of the person, for doing or omitting to do any act, if the act is done or omitted to be done with reasonable care and in good faith and for the purpose of complying with or giving effect to the Part 3 Regulation.

12.- (1) This Clause applies where-

(a) a person fails to comply with a Part 3 Regulation;

(b) the subject DECLARATION is being transmitted in Nigeria by the person from an online location; and

(c) the Law Enforcement Department is satisfied that one or more end users in Nigeria have used or are using the services of an internet access service provider to access that online location.

(3) The Law Enforcement Department may direct the NCC to order the internet access service provider to take reasonable steps to disable access by end users in Nigeria to the online location (called in this Clause an access blocking order), and the NCC must give the internet access service provider an access blocking order.

(4) An internet access service provider that does not comply with any access blocking order shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on correction to a fine not exceeding N10Million for each day during any part of which that order is not fully complied with, up to a total of N5 Million.

(5) No civil or criminal liability is incurred by an internet access service Provider or an officer, employee or agent of such provider, for anything done or omitted to be done with reasonable care and in good faith in complying with any access blocking order.

13.- (1) A person to whom a Part 3 Regulation is issued may appeal to the High Court against the Regulation.

(2) No appeal may be made to the High Court by any person unless the person has first applied to the Law Enforcement Department to vary or cancel the Part 3 Regulation and the Law Enforcement Department refused the application whether in whole or in part.

(3) An appeal may only be made to the High Court within such period as may be prescribed by Rules of Court.

(4) The High Court must hear and determine any such appeal and may, either confirm the Part 3 Regulation or set it aside.

(5) The High Court may only set aside a Part 3 Regulation on any of the following grounds on an appeal:

(a) the person did not transmit in Nigeria the subject
DECLARATION;

(b) the subject DECLARATION is not a DECLARATION of fact, or, is a true DECLARATION of fact;

(c) it is not technically possible to comply with the Regulation.

(6) A Part 3 Regulation that is the subject of an appeal under sub Clause (1) remains in effect despite the appeal and only ceases to have effect if it is set aside by the High Court or the Court of Appeal on appeal from the High Court, or if it expires or is cancelled by the Law Enforcement Department.

(7) In spite of sub Clause (6), if the appellant establishes a prima facie case that it is technically impossible to comply with the Part 3 Regulation, the PART 4 - REGULATION FOR INTERNET INTERMEDIARIES AND PROVIDERS OF MASS MEDIA SERVICES

16.- (1) Any Law Enforcement Department may issue a Part 4 Regulation if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(a) material (called in this Part the subject material) that contains or consists of a false DECLARATION of fact (called in this Part the subject DECLARATION) has been or is being transmitted in Nigeria;

(b) the Law Enforcement Department is of the opinion that it is in public interest to issue the Regulation.

(2) Any Law Enforcement Department may instruct the Competent Authority to issue a Part 4 Regulation in relation to the subject material even if it has been amended or has ceased to be transmitted in Nigeria.

17.- (1) A Targeted Correction Regulation is one issued to the internet intermediary that provided the internet intermediary service by means of which the subject material has been or is being transmitted in Nigeria, requiring it to transmit by means of that service to all end users in Nigeria who access the subject material by means of that service at any time after a specified time, a notice (called in this Part a correction notice) that contains one or both of the following:

(a) a DECLARATION, in such terms as may be specified, that the subject DECLARATION is false, or that the subject material contains or consists of a false DECLARATION of fact;

(b) a specified DECLARATION of fact, or a reference to a specified location where the specified DECLARATION of fact may be found, or both.

(2) Where the internet intermediary mentioned in sub Clause (1) is a prescribed internet intermediary, the Targeted Correction Regulation may also require the internet intermediary to do one or more of the following:

(a) transmit the correction notice by means of the internet intermediary service to all end users in Nigeria who access identical copies of High Court may direct that the Regulation be stayed pending determination of the appeal.

8. Rules of Court may provide for the manner in which and the time within which an appeal under sub Clause (1) may be made and the procedure for an application to stay a Part 3 Regulation appealed against.

14. The issue of a Part 3 Regulation in relation to the subject DECLARATION does not affect any power or right of any person (including a Law Enforcement Department or any party interested) to take any action under this Act or any other law in relation to that DECLARATION, or the power of the Public Prosecutor to initiate proceedings for an offence under this Act or any other law in relation to that DECLARATION.

15.-(1) The Law Enforcement Department may vary or cancel the Part 3 Regulation, by serving a written notice on the person to whom the Regulation is issued.

(2) The Law Enforcement Department may vary or cancel the Part 3 Regulation under sub Clause (1)-

(a) on the Law Enforcement Department’s own initiative provided there is overwhelming sufficient evidence necessitating this variation or cancellation;

(b) on an application by the person to whom the Regulation is issued.

(3) A Part 3 Regulation remains in effect despite any application made to the Law Enforcement Department for its variation or cancellation.

(4) Clauses 14 to 17 apply in relation to a Part 3 Regulation that is varied under this Clause as they apply in relation to the original Part 3 Regulation.

(5) Clause 14 applies in relation to a notice cancelling a Part 3 Regulation under this Clause as it applies in relation to the original Part 3 Regulation.
the subject material by means of that service at any time after the specified time;

(b) transmit the correction notice by any means and by a specified time, to all end users in Nigeria that it knows had accessed the subject material or identical copies of the subject material (or both) by means of that service at any time before the specified time mentioned in sub Clause (1);

(c) if the internet intermediary disables access by end users in Nigeria to the subject material at any time after the Regulation is issued and before it expires or is set aside or cancelled, transmit the correction notice by means of the internet intermediary service to a specified description of end users in Nigeria.

(3) In this Clause-

(a) "specified": means specified in the Targeted Correction Regulation; and

(b) an end user who accesses a part of any material is taken to access the material.

18.- (1) A Disabling Regulation is one issued to the internet intermediary that provided the internet intermediary service by means of which the subject material has been or is being transmitted in Nigeria, requiring it to disable access by end users in Nigeria to the subject material provided on or through the service that consists of or contains the subject DECLARATION, by the specified time.

(2) Where the internet intermediary mentioned in sub Clause (1) is a Prescribed internet intermediary, the Disabling Regulation may also require the internet intermediary to do one or both of the following:

(a) to disable access by end users of the service in Nigeria to identical copies of the subject material provided on or through the internet intermediary service;

(b) to transmit a correction notice by any means to a specified description of end users in Nigeria.
(3) Once a Disabling Regulation has been issued, the Law Enforcement Department must publish a notice of that fact in the Gazette as soon as possible.

(4) However, a failure to publish the notice of the issue of the Disabling Regulation in the Gazette does not invalidate the Regulation.

(3) In this Clause-
(a) "specified" means specified in the Disabling Regulation; and
(b) an end user who accesses a part of any material is taken to access the material.

19.-(1) A General Correction Regulation is one issued to one of the following persons to carry out an act mentioned in sub Clause (2):
(a) a prescribed internet intermediary;
(b) such other person as may be prescribed.

(2) The act mentioned in sub Clause (1) is-
(a) if the Regulation is issued to a person mentioned in sub Clause
(1)(a), to transmit a correction notice in Nigeria by means of the internet intermediary service provided by it, to all end users who use that service at any time after the specified time, or a specified description of such end users;
(b) if the Regulation is issued to a person mentioned in sub Clause (1)(b), to give a correction notice to a specified person or description of persons, by the specified means and by the specified time.

(3) In this Clause, "specified" means specified in the General Regulation.

20.-(1) A Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order may be issued to a person whether the person is in or outside Nigeria.

(2) A Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order may require a person to whom it is issued to do an act in or outside Nigeria.

(3) A Part 4 Regulation must identify in sufficient detail the subject material and the subject DECLARATION.
(4) A Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order remains in effect until the date it expires (if any), it is set aside or it is cancelled.

(5) A person who is issued a Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order is responsible for the costs of complying with the Regulation.

(6) A person (A) to whom a General Correction Regulation is issued may bring civil proceedings in the High Court against a person (B) who is the author of the subject DECLARATION and who transmitted in Nigeria the subject material, to recover the costs reasonably incurred by A to comply with the Regulation.

(7) In such proceedings, the Court, if it is satisfied on a balance of probabilities that B has contravened this law when transmitting the subject material in Nigeria, may award to A such damages for those costs as the court, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, deem just and equitable.

21. A Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order may be served by such means (including electronic means) as may be prescribed—

(a) on the person to whom it is issued; or

(b) on a person in Nigeria that the person to whom the Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order is issued has appointed to accept service on the person’s behalf.

22.- (1) A person to whom a Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order is issued and served and who, without reasonable excuse, fails to comply with the Regulation or Order whether in or outside Nigeria, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction—

(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding N300,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both; or

(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding N5 Million, and, in the case of a continuing offence, to a further fine not exceeding N10 Million for every day or part of a day during which the offence continues after.

(2) It is not a defence to a charge under sub-Clause (1) that—
(a) the person is subject to a duty under any written law, any rule of law, any contract or any rule of professional conduct, that prevents the person from complying with any part of a Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order or restricts the person in such compliance; or (b) the person has applied to vary or cancel the Regulation or Order or has appealed to the High Court against the Regulation.
(3) No civil or criminal liability is incurred by a person or an officer, employee or agent of the person, for doing or omitting to do any act, if the act is done or omitted to be done with reasonable care and in good faith and for the purpose of complying with or giving effect to the Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order.
(4) In determining whether a person charged with an offence under sub Clause (1) has a reasonable excuse for failing to comply with a Part 4Regulation or Remedial Order, the court must consider-
(a) the state of the art available to give effect to the Regulation or Order;
(b) the cost of complying with the Regulation or Order relative to the means available to the person; and © any other relevant factor.
23.- (1) this clause applies where-
(a) a person that is an internet intermediary fails to comply with a Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order;
(b) the subject material is being transmitted in Nigeria on an online location; and
(c) the Law Enforcement Department is satisfied that one or more end users in Nigeria have used or are using the services of an internet access service provider to access that online location.
(2) Law Enforcement Department may direct the NCC to order the internet access service provider to take reasonable steps to disable access by end users in Nigeria to the online location called in this Clause an access blocking order), and the NCC must give the internet access service provider an access blocking order.

(3) An internet access service provider that does not comply with an access blocking order shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding N1 Million for each day during any part of which that order is not fully complied with, up to a total of N10 Million.

(4) No civil or criminal liability is incurred by an internet access service provider or an officer, employee or agent of such provider, for anything done or omitted to be done with reasonable care and in good faith in complying with any access blocking order.

24.- (1) The following persons may appeal to the High Court against any Part 4 Regulation:

(a) the person to whom the Regulation is issued;

(b) a person who transmitted in Nigeria the subject material.

(2) No appeal may be made to the High Court by any person unless the person has first applied to the Law Enforcement Department to vary or cancel the Part 4 Regulations either in whole or in part.

(3) An appeal may only be made to the High Court within such period as may be prescribed by Rules of Court.

(4) The High Court must hear and determine any such appeal and may either confirm the Part 4 Regulation or set it aside.

(5) The High Court may only set aside a Part 4 Regulation on any of the following grounds on an appeal by the person to whom the Regulation is issued:

(a) in the case of a Targeted Correction Regulation or a Disabling Regulation; the subject material was not transmitted in Nigeria, or was not transmitted in Nigeria by means of any internet intermediary service provided by the person;

(b) the subject DECLARATION is not a DECLARATION of fact, or is a true DECLARATION of fact;
(c) It is not technically possible to comply with the Regulation.

(6) The High Court may only set aside a Part 4 Regulation on an appeal by a person who transmitted in Nigeria the subject material, on the ground that the subject DECLARATION is not a DECLARATION of fact, or is a true fact.

(7) A Part 4 Regulation that is the subject of an appeal under sub-
Clause (1) remains in effect despite the appeal, and only ceases to have effect if it is set aside by the High Court or the Court of Appeal on appeal from the High Court, or if it expires or is cancelled.

(8) If the appellant (being the person to whom the Part 4 Regulation is issued) establishes a prima facie case that it is technically impossible to comply with the Part 4 Regulation, the High Court may direct that the Regulation be stayed pending determination of the appeal.

(9) There is such further right of appeal from a decision of the High Court under this Clause as exists in the case of a decision made by that Court in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction.

(10) Rules of Court may provide for the manner in which and the time within which an appeal under sub Clause (1) may be made and the procedure for an application to stay a Part 4 Regulation appealed against.

25. The issue of a Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order in relation to any material does not affect any power or right of any person (including a Law Enforcement Department or any Party Interested) to take any action under this Act or any other law in relation to the subject DECLARATION, or the power of the Public Prosecutor to initiate Proceedings for an offence under this Act or any other law in relation to that DECLARATION.

26. (1) The Law Enforcement Department may at any time vary or cancel the Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order, by serving a written notice on the Person to whom the Regulation or Order is issued.

(2) The Law Enforcement Department may vary or cancel the Regulation or Order under sub Clause (1)-
(a) on the Law Enforcement Department's own initiative provided there is a prima facie reason necessitating this variation or cancellation; or
(b) on an application by-
(i) the person to whom the Regulation or Order is issued; or
(ii) a person who transmitted in Nigeria the subject material.
(3) A Part 4 Regulation or Remedial Order remains in effect despite any application made to the Law Enforcement Department for its variation or cancellation.

PART 5 - DECLARATION OF ONLINE LOCATIONS

27.-(1) The Law Enforcement Department may declare an online location as DECLARED online location if all of the following conditions are satisfied:
(a) 3 or more different DECLARATIONs that are the subject of one or more active Part 3 regulation or Part 4 regulation, or both, have been or are being transmitted in Nigeria on the online location;
(b) at least 3 of those DECLARATIONs had first been transmitted in Nigeria on the online location within 6 months before the date the DECLARATION is made.
(2) For the purpose of sub Clause (1)(a), a DECLARATION is different from another if it is different in a material particular from that other DECLARATION.
(3) A DECLARATION-
(a) must contain the Universal Resource Locator (URL), domain name, or any other unique identifier of the online location;
(b) must reproduce the relevant regulation;
(c) must state the date the DECLARATION comes into effect;
(d) must state the date of the DECLARATION's expiry or a formula by which that date may be worked out, which must not be later than 2 years after the date in paragraph (c);
(e) may state the time on that date the DECLARATION is to expire or a formula by which that time may be worked out;

(f) may require the owner or operator of the online location DECLARATION (whether or not he or she is in or outside Nigeria) to transmit in the specified manner in Nigeria to end user who accesses the online location, a notice in the specified terms that the online location is the subject of a DECLARATION; and

(g) must contain such other particulars as may be prescribed.

(4) A DECLARATION expires-

(a) on the date and at the time (if any) DECLARED in, or worked out in accordance with, the; or

(b) on the date it is cancelled or set aside, whichever is earlier.

(4) As soon as possible after a DECLARATION is made and before the date it comes into effect, the Law Enforcement Department must-

(a) publish, in such form and manner as may be prescribed, a notice in the Gazette-

(i) stating that a DECLARATION has been issued under this Clause;

and

(ii) setting out the URL, domain name, or any other unique identifier of the online location, to which the DECLARATION relates; and

(b) make reasonable efforts to give a copy of the DECLARATION to the owner or operator of the DECLARED online location.

(5) The owner or operator of a DECLARED online location who fails to comply with any requirement mentioned in sub Clause (3)(f) whether in or outside Nigeria, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction-

(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding N500,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or

(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding N5 Million.

(7) It is a defence to a charge under sub Clause (6) for the accused to prove that the accused did not know and had no reason to believe that a DECLARATION was made in relation to the online location.
(8) The Law Enforcement Department may at any time suspend a DECLARATION for such period as the Law Enforcement Department may determine, or vary or cancel a DECLARATION.

(9) The Law Enforcement Department may suspend, vary or cancel a DECLARATION-

(a) on the Law Enforcement Department’s own initiative; or

(b) on an application by-

(i) the owner or operator of the DECLARED online location; or

(ii) any person with editorial control over the online location.

(10) As soon as possible after a DECLARATION is suspended, varied or cancelled, the Competent Authority must-

(a) publish, in such form and manner as may be prescribed, a notice of the suspension, variation or cancellation in the Gazette; and

(b) make reasonable efforts to give a copy of such notice to the owner or operator of the DECLARED online location.

(11) For the purposes of sub Clause (1)-

(a) “active”, in relation to a Part 3 Regulation or Part 4 Regulation, means that the Part 3 Regulation or Part 4 Regulation (as the case may be) has not been set aside at the time the DECLARATION mentioned in sub Clause (1) is made;

(b) where a DECLARATION of fact is transmitted in Nigeria on-

(i) an online location bearing a sub domain name that is part of a domain name; or

(ii) a subdirectory of a website, the Law Enforcement Department may treat the DECLARATION as transmitted on the online location that bears that domain name, or on that website, as the case may be; and

(c) where the DECLARATIONs mentioned in sub Clause (1) are duplicated on another online location (called in this paragraph the mirrored location), each mirrored location is to be regarded as part of the original 28.—(1) This Clause applies where-

(a) paid content included on a DECLARED online location is transmitted in Nigeria after a prescribed period starting on the date the DECLARATION concerned came into effect; and

(b) the Law Enforcement Department is satisfied that after the date the DECLARATION came into effect, one or more end users in Nigeria have used or are using the services of an internet access service provider to access the DECLARED online location.

(2) This Clause also applies where-

(a) the owner or operator of a DECLARED online location did not comply with a requirement mentioned in Clause 27(3)(f) that is specified in the DECLARATION concerned; and

(b) the Law Enforcement Department is satisfied that after the date the DECLARATION came into effect, one or more end users in Nigeria have used or are using the services of an internet access service provider to access the DECLARED online location.

(3) The Law Enforcement Department may direct the NCC to order the internet access service provider to take reasonable steps to disable access by end users in Nigeria to the DECLARED online location (called in this Clause an access blocking order), and the NCC must give the internet access service provider an access blocking order.

(4) An internet access service provider that fails to comply with an access blocking order shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding 1 Million for each day during any part of which that order is not fully complied with, up to a total of N10 Million.

(4) No civil or criminal liability is incurred by an internet access service provider or an officer, employee or agent of such provider, for anything done or omitted to be done with reasonable care and in good faith in complying with an access blocking order.
29.—(1) This Clause applies where—

(a) paid content included on a DECLARED online location is transmitted in Nigeria after a prescribed period starting on the date the DECLARATION concerned came into effect;

(b) the Law Enforcement Department is satisfied that after the date the DECLARATION came into effect, one or more end users in Nigeria have used or are using the services of an internet intermediary to access the DECLARED online location; and

(c) the internet intermediary has control over access by end users in any place to the DECLARED online location.

(2) This Clause also applies where:

(a) the owner or operator of a DECLARED online location did not comply with a requirement that is specified in the DECLARATION concerned;

(b) the Law Enforcement Department is satisfied that after the date the DECLARATION came into effect, one or more end users in Nigeria have used or are using the services of an internet intermediary to access the DECLARED online location; and

(c) the internet intermediary has control over access by end users in any place to the DECLARED online location.

(4) The Law Enforcement Department may direct the Competent Authority to order the internet intermediary to disable access by end users in Nigeria to the DECLARED online location, and the Competent Authority must give the internet intermediary such order.

(5) An order of the Competent Authority under sub Clause (3) may be issued to a person whether the person is in or outside Nigeria, and may require the person to do an act in or outside Nigeria.

(6) An internet intermediary that fails to comply with an order of the Competent Authority under sub Clause (3) whether in or outside Nigeria, shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding N1 Million for each day during any part of which that order is not fully complied with, up to a total of N10 Million.

(7) No civil or criminal liability is incurred by an intermediary or an officer, employee or agent of such intermediary, for anything done or omitted to be done with reasonable care and in good faith in complying with an order under sub Clause (3).

30.-(1) The following persons may appeal to the high court against a

DECLARATION:

(a) the owner or operator of the DECLARED online location; (b) any person with editorial control over the online location.

(2) No appeal may be made to the High Court by any person unless the person has first applied to the Law Enforcement Department to vary or cancel the DECLARATION and the Law Enforcement Department refused the application whether in whole or in part.

(3) An appeal may only be made to the High Court within such period as may be prescribed by Rules of Court.

(5) The high court must hear and determine any such appeal and may either confirm the DECLARATION or set it aside.

(6) The high court may only set aside a DECLARATION on the ground that, at the time of making the DECLARATION, the condition specified was not satisfied.

(7) A DECLARATION that is the subject of an appeal remains in effect despite the appeal, and only ceases to have effect if it is set aside by the High Court or the Court of Appeal on appeal from the High Court, or if it expires or is cancelled.

(8) There is such further right of appeal from a decision of the High Court under this Clause as exists in the case of a decision made by that Court in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction.

(9) Rules of Court may provide for the manner in which and the time within which an appeal under sub Clause (1) may be made.
31.- (1) A person who, whether in or outside Nigeria, solicits, receives or agrees to receive any financial or other material benefit as an inducement or reward for operating a DECLARED online location shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction:
(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding N300,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or
(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding N5 Million.
(2) Without limiting the generality of the expression, a person receives financial or other material benefit as an inducement or reward for the operation of an online location if the person receives from another:
(a) any consideration for the sale of advertising space on the online location; or
(b) any consideration for access to any part of the online location.
(3) Where a court convicts any person of an offence under sub Clause (1), the court must, in addition to imposing on that person the punishment in that sub Clause, order the person to pay as a penalty, within the time specified by the court, a sum equal to the amount of any financial or other material benefit received or the amount that in the court's opinion is the value of that financial or other material benefit, and any such penalty is recoverable as a fine.
(4) Sub Clause (3) does not apply if the court determines that the value of the financial or other material benefit cannot be assessed.
(5) In this Clause, a person is not taken to operate an online location if the person does so merely as part of providing an Internet intermediary service or incidentally to such provision.
32.- (1) A service provider must take reasonable steps (both in and Outside Nigeria) to ensure that after a prescribed period starting on the date the DECLARATION comes into effect, any paid content that it includes or causes to be included on a DECLARED online location is not transmitted in Nigeria or the DECLARED online location.
(2) A digital advertising intermediary must take reasonable steps (both in and outside Nigeria) to ensure that, after a prescribed period starting on the date the DECLARATION comes into effect, any paid content that it includes or causes to be included on a DECLARED online location is not transmitted in Nigeria on the DECLARED online location.

(3) A prescribed digital advertising intermediary or prescribed Internet intermediary must take reasonable steps (both in and outside Nigeria) to ensure that, after a prescribed period starting on the date the DECLARATION comes into effect, it does not, when acting as a digital advertising intermediary or an Internet intermediary, facilitate the transmission in Nigeria of any paid content that gives publicity to, or otherwise promotes, a DECLARED online location.

(4) A person who contravenes sub Clause (1), (2) or (3) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction:

(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding N200,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 12 months or to both; or

(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding N5 Million

(5) In any proceeding for an offence under sub Clause (1), (2) or (3), it is a defence for the accused to prove that the accused did not know and had no reason to believe that the online location was a DECLARED online location.

(6) In any proceeding for an offence under sub Clause (1), (2) or (3), it is, not a defence for the accused to show that:

(a) the accused did the act in question at the Regulation of another person; or

(b) the paid content was transmitted in Nigeria by its inclusion on any online location through an automatic process without the accused choosing where the paid content is transmitted, except as an automatic response to the request of a person.

33.- (1) A person must not, whether in or outside Nigeria, expend or apply any property knowing or having reason to believe that the expenditure or application supports, helps or promotes the transmission of false declaration of fact in Nigeria on a Declared Online Location.
(2) Sub Clause (1) does not apply to a service provider or a digital advertising intermediary which gives any consideration for the purpose of transmitting any paid content in Nigeria on the declared online location:
(3) A person who contravene sub Clause (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction:
(a) in the case of an individual, to a fine not exceeding N300,000 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 3 years or to both; or
(b) in any other case, to a fine not exceeding N10 Million
